

Engagement and Shared Histories Decade of Commemorations

Connect with us
www.librariesni.org.uk

The Library Men of WW1

A digitised collection of letters written by staff of Belfast Public Libraries involved in the First World War

*My dear Mr Elliott,
I don't know whether a letter from the Council has got this far to being the front line, with 100 yards of the system explain the dirt on the letter to you then.*

ablaye with poppies

Connect with heritage
www.librariesni.org.uk

BELFAST PUBLIC LIBRARIES
1st June 1916.
Dear Miss Cox,
I am instructed to inform you that the Council at their meeting this day approved of the resolution of the Library and Technical Instruction Committee suspending you from the 4th ult. and dispensing with your services consequent on your absence from duty from the 25th to the 29th April last, without permission.
Cheque for your salary for the month of May is enclosed herewith.
I am further instructed to hand you one month's salary in lieu of notice.
Yours Truly,
Miss H. Cox - Chief Librarian
107 Omeau Road
Belfast.

Presented by Adrienne Adair
e: Adrienne.Adair@librariesni.org.uk

libraries ni
www.librariesni.org.uk